"A Hero's Promise"

I, Hero of light and Hero of hope

In the name of the kingdom of Solaris

Declare this as a promise to the people that mope

And swear that I will save thy souls from thy sadness

From the obscurity of the malevolent, Noctis.

The kingdom of Lunaris has stolen our light,

Darkness has succumbed our kingdom

But thy darkness shall not win without fight

Solaris shall not fright,

It shall rise and defeat the darkness of the Moon-Dom!

Fellow Solarians, I will save this land

The light of the Great Sun shall shine through thy souls once more,

Lunaris shall fall and Noctis shall die by my hand

And I shall return undaunted to the Great Sun's grace!

Solaris, have hope in this hero's light

As this kingdom shall not stand more fright.
